Cloud Vision API Product Search

How-to Guides

Before you begin
Perform all steps to enable and use the Vision API Product Search on the Google Cloud Console.

(https://cloud.google.com/vision/product-search/docs/before-you-begin)

Formatting a bulk import CSV
Learn how to properly format a CSV to use for simultaneous creation of a product set, products and reference images.

(https://cloud.google.com/vision/product-search/docs/csv-format)

Creating a product set
Create a product set resource.

(https://cloud.google.com/vision/product-search/docs/create-product-set)

Creating and managing a product
Create a product, add a product to a product set, or remove a product from a product set.

(https://cloud.google.com/vision/product-search/docs/create-product)

Creating reference images & indexing
Learn about bulk and single reference image creation, as well as automatic indexing.

(https://cloud.google.com/vision/product-search/docs/create-reference-images)

Getting and listing resources
Learn how to list and get product sets, products, and reference images.

(https://cloud.google.com/vision/product-search/docs/get-list-resources)

Updating resources
Update a product.

(https://cloud.google.com/vision/product-search/docs/update-resources)

Deleting resources
Learn how to delete a product set, product, and reference image.

(https://cloud.google.com/vision/product-search/docs/delete-resources)

Searching for products
Send a Vision API request so search your product set.

(https://cloud.google.com/vision/product-search/docs/searching)

Understanding search responses & multi-detection
Interpret the response from a matching product search request.

(https://cloud.google.com/vision/product-search/docs/searching-response)

Getting an operation's status
Get the status of a long running (offline) operation.

(https://cloud.google.com/vision/product-search/docs/operation-status)

Base64 encode
Base64 encode an image file.

(https://cloud.google.com/vision/product-search/docs/base64)